

The age of uncertainty

The Power of Protection Life changers

Responses from people aged 25+ in a survey of 12,398 people in 12 countries and territories

People face a more uncertain future...

Compared with their parents' generation, people think they:

51% have to take more financial risks

49% are under more financial pressure

48% face a more uncertain future

Asked to predict what life will be like in the future, people believe the next generation will:

54% have to take more financial risks

58% be under more financial pressure

56% face a more uncertain future

...but also have more choices

60% have more choices in life

46% are better off financially

43% have a better quality of life

42% have a more fulfilling life

56% have more choices in life

39% be better off financially

46% have a better quality of life

47% have a more fulfilling life